For one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge through the same Spirit; For another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing through the same Spirit; For another, the work of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discernment of spirits; to another diverse type of language; to another interpretation of languages; But all this works that one and the spirit of selfsame, dividing to each man severely as he will. – 1 Corinthians 12:8-11 There are 9 Gifts of the Holy Ghost 1. Interpretation of The Languages of Revelation Gifts - Gifts That Reveal Something! 1. Word of Wisdom 2. Word of Knowledge 3. Discerning Spirits Power Gifts – Gifts That Do Something! 1. The gift of faith The gift of faith is also sometimes called special faith or faith of wonder work. First of all, it is important to understand that there is a difference between the faith we all have and the gift of faith. Remember, these gifts are like the will of the Spirit, not so will we do. We can all exercise faith in the Word of God to believe for a miracle whenever we wish! We can develop our personal faith and make it stronger. The gift of faith is the faith of the gods on a believer for a time, so that they can receive a miracle. A priest said the gift of faith is that God unscrewing your head, and dumping out all doubt and disbelief, and then filling you with high octane, unleaded Faith Gods! 2. The gifts of healing the gifts of Healing is the supernatural ability to serve the healing of the physical body of other peoples. Scripture does not explain exactly why it is called Healing Gifts, but it is usually accepted that it is because some people are used specifically with certain types of diseases. Not all divine healings are done through the Gifts of Healing. For example, the Bible says that the Word of God is health for our flesh. We can all receive healing in our bodies through Word and Faith, but these are not the same gifts of healing. Someone who operates in this gift is able to serve the healing of others easily. 3. Working miracles A miracle can be defined as a supernatural intervention of God in the ordinary course of nature. We can all receive a miracle through prayer and faith in the Word of the Gods. However, the gift of working miracles actively performs a miracle. When this gift is on you, you'll walk on water when you should dive! With this but you will miraculously see in the manifestation in your home, business and on the streets! The gifts of the Spirit can the difference between life and death. The leaders of the Kingdom are urged to desire the greater gifts (1 Corinthians 12:31). This means wanting the most useful gifts that are under of the Holy Spirit and motivated by love. In life and death situations, the most useful gifts are also the most powerful gifts: great faith, healing, and miracles. The same Spirit gives great faith to one, the gift of healing another and the deeds of another's miracles (1 Corinthians 12:9-10). The power of these gifts refers to life, so that they could be considered as the power of life-gifts. In this study, you will discover you can be used by the Spirit to flow into the gifts of power to help other people. The introduction of the gifts of power the gifts of the Spirit manifests a supernatural flow of God's energy. Spiritual gifts are the special gifts of supernatural energy given by the Holy Ghost (1 Corinthians 12:1 AMP). Power gifts contain much more energy than other gifts. It takes more energy to create a miracle than to prophets or speak in tongues. Each of the power gifts is unique and used in different situations. The Great Faith The measure of faith that is given to each believer could be considered common faith in contrast to the spiritual gift of faith. God has assigned each a measure of faith (Romans 12:3). The gift of faith is a powerful force that amplifies the common faith of a believer. The gift of faith is used to help others when their faith is weak or they cannot activate their own faith. Those who understood the authority of the word of God were described as having great faith. Their miracles resulted from uttering only the word of God. The centurion believed in the authority of the word of Jesus, so all Jesus had to do was utter the word, and His servant was healed (Matthew 8:5-13). The daughter of the Syrophenician woman was freed by a demon because the woman believed that the words Jesus said were truth (Matthew 15:21-28). The gift of healing the gift of healing is given to heal the sick. It is an expression of God's love for His people, and those who operate the gift of healing are compassionate to those who are sick. Like Jesus, they are moved by compassion and pray frequently for the sick. While believers may have faith to be healed and faith to pray for others to be healed, the gift of healing releases an extraordinary healing power beyond what an individual already believes. The work of miracles The gift of miracles is the unlimited miraculous power that can change natural situations. The word that works here is important because it means energy in Greek. Thus, this gift is literally the energy of miracles. Miracles happen when God intervenes supernaturally. God is a miracle-making God. His miracles reveal his presence and glory and create a sense of awe and astonishment among people. As a result of miracles God, many people came to Him and glorified Him (John 2:23, 11-45; Acts 9:36-42). Those who believe in Jesus will do miraculous works so did he and the greatest (John 14:12). They are able to perform miracles because Jesus returned to the Father so that the Spirit could be sent to the faithful. Enable Activation Gifts Those who operate in the gifts of power are sensitive to the presence and power of God through His Spirit. They have a great desire for God to reveal himself and draw many to His Son, Jesus. They show people to Jesus and give glory to God. They understand that God can work when and wants, but they remain ready and available to use Him. These gifts are accompanied by full trust in God and fervently praying that His will be done. The powerful power of the Spirit is given to those who believe. Until the believers are full of the Spirit, they are instructed to wait to receive the Spirit and be equipped with power from above (Luke 24:49). When they receive the Spirit without limit, then they are sent to do the Father's will. Those whom God sends are full of Spirit without measure and equipped with strong power (John 3:34). However, the power of the Spirit is kept in reserve as an inactive force within a believer until it is released by faith. The voice of the Spirit arouses faith the Spirit hears the living word of God and speaks this word to those who will believe. The Spirit will not speak alone, but will speak only what it has heard (John 16:13). He only speaks the word of God. Therefore, the word the Spirit speaks is the word of God. His word will not contradict the written word, but will give specific instructions to the faithful. Faith appears and a divine bond is made when the voice of the Spirit is heard. Today, believers can hear the word of God so spoken by the Spirit and have faith to flow into the gifts of power. Faith energizes and activates the power of the Spirit The energy of God flowing in and though a believer is the key to operating in the gifts of power. The greater the energy, the greater the miracle. Creative energy is the highest form of energy in the universe because it created everything you see. God freed his energy and the world was formed. Power is stored only until it is released into transformation or creative energy. A high-powered sports car only has stored energy until it starts to move. The power of the Spirit within a believer has the potential to be stored as energy or released to transform and create. The creative energy of the Spirit removes doubt and unbelief and replaces disease and poverty. Disease and poverty abound in low-energy areas where the voice of the Spirit is not heard. For if the voice of the Spirit were heard, faith would rise, and creative energy would cause disease and poverty to flee. When believers hear the voice of the Spirit from within and say His words, they release creative energy. The voice of the Spirit stirs faith and frees its power. As believers cast expression on the voice heard in them, they express the word of God on earth. Then they will produce His fruit; whatever they say and will be fruitful. 4 Tips about increasing energy Many want to flow into gifts, but do not know how to prepare their vessel for the use of the Spirit. It takes supernatural energy. Supernatural, through an individual believer to flow with the gifts. The more energy flowing through the individual prepares them for greater use by the Spirit in gifts. Here are four important ways to increase energy flow. 1. Pray in spirit An intimate relationship with the Spirit is essential for those who wish to flow in the gifts of the Spirit. Speaking in his language by praying in the Spirit is a good way to develop a relationship with Him. You, dear ones, build on your holiest faith, praying in the Holy Ghost, keep yourself in the love of God (Judas 1:20-21). The more you pray in the Spirit, the more your faith and love grow. 2. Study the Word Keep the word of God preeminent in your life. Believe the word and take your word for it. Jesus, which is the word, will come to have first place in everything (Colossians 1:18). The word of God is alive and energizing. The Word of God is alive and active and full of power [making it operative, energizing, and effective] (Hebrews 4:12 AMP). Faith comes when the word comes. You can flow in gifts only according to the measure of your faith, which is consistent with the amount of word revealed in which you go. 3. Stay humble The biggest obstacle to the flow of energy and the demonstration of gifts is pride. It's a path the enemy can use when a person starts operating in gifts. God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble (James 4:6). Grace is the operational power or life-giving energy that allows people to flow in gifts. Those who are used by the Spirit are simply the vessels it uses. Before you have the opportunity to serve someone, surrender yourself to the Spirit by telling them that you want to be used by them. This will help you remain humble and sensitive to the leadership of the Spirit. 4. Fellowship with the light of Father God is a form of energy. If we walk in the light so he himself is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus, His Son, cleanses us of all sins (1 John 1:7). As you share with the Father, he puts light and energy into you. Peter's shadow healed people. The more you share with the Father and walk in the light, the more energy will flow through your life. Radically initiate the gifts of power Many believers wait for the Spirit to move them, but are not puppets on a string. Instead, they are colleagues with God (1 Corinthians 3:9). They can initiate the functioning of the gifts of power by keeping a burning fire inside and ceding their vessels for use by the Holy Ghost. The believers were given a spirit of power, love and self-control; but they must keep the fire burning inside to act in gifts (2 Timothy 1:6-7). Don't be shy or cowardly when it comes to running the gifts of power, but be brave. When the fire burns in and you're given Spirit, you will see opportunities to be used by the Spirit in the use of the gifts of power. Seek these opportunities and follow the prompting of the Spirit. Do not be driven by the needs of men, but motivated by love and sensitive to the leadership of the Spirit. What can you do when power gifts don't flow in a particular situation? Be moved by compassion and you can move the Spirit into action. When a leper asked Jesus to heal him, he was moved with compassion and healed him. Moved with compassion, Jesus reached out and touched him, and... immediately the leprosy left him (Mark 1:41-42). It would have been illegal for Jesus to touch a leper, but he had so much power flowing through him that the leper was immediately healed. True worship and fervent prayer moves the Spirit. When Paul and Silas were in prison, they created an environment for the Spirit to move. As they prayed and praised God, a great earthquake caused the prison doors to fly and the chains of all to come loose (Acts 16:25-26). Prayer and praise help believers establish an environment in which they can be used in the use of gifts. Personal story on Power Gifts Recently, I prayed for more people to be filled with the Spirit. As they were full of Spirit, they expected to pray for others to be full. One of the first people I prayed for was catapulted into the air a few feet above my head. He fell on the concrete floor on his back. The man lay there for a few minutes and then suddenly jumped up and began to pray that other people would be full of Spirit. Those he prayed for were full of Spirit. The fact that he was catapulted into the air and then fell on his back without being hurt was an amazing demonstration of God's power. I told the Lord that I must not see anyone catapulted and falling like this again to know that his power worked in my life. Conclusions Everyone will face life and death situations, so they must know to flow into the gifts of power. Now is the time to prepare for this kind of situation. Otherwise, it may be too late. Gifts of power are gifts of great energy that bring healing and creative miracles from the supernatural realm to the natural realm. Believers can increase the level of energy in their lives by building strong relationships with the Father, His Son, and His Spirit and remaining humble before the Lord. The conventional way to activate the gifts of power is for a believer to give in to the Spirit and follow the leadership of the Spirit. The spirit manifests the gifts of power as it desires. There are also radical ways to flow into the gifts of power. Through true worship and fervent prayer, believers can create an environment in which the Spirit can demonstrate the gifts of power. Moving with compassion, believers can take advantage of opportunities for the gifts of power to work. study #1 Who do you know that he faces difficult situations and needs gifts of power to operate in his/her life now? #2 What What you from operating in power gifts? #3 What can you do to increase God's energy in your life? #4 can you become more sensitive to the opportunities to flow into the gifts of power? #5 Who could you serve in the gifts of power now?
